Item no.20
Ct no.34

IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
Criminal Revisional Jurisdiction

CRR 374 of 2021

Sanat Ishwar Parmar & Anr.

-versus-

The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Re : An application under Section 482 read with Section 397 of the Cr.P.C.

Ms. Diksha Ghosh

.....for the petitioners.

Mr. Arkadeb Bhattacharya

....for the O. P. No. 2.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that she do not have any instruction to represent the petitioners.

I find that the final order was passed by the learned Magistrate, which was affirmed by the learned Chief Judge, City Sessions Court in Criminal Appeal No. 272 of 2019.

Having regard to the fact that the said order of the learned Magistrate was passed in the year 2019 and the appeal court disposed of the appeal in the month of January, 2021, I am of the view that at this belated stage, no interference should be made in respect of the quantum and order of interim maintenance.

Mr. Bhattacharya, learned advocate appears on behalf of the private opposite party and submits that pending hearing of the revisional application, the learned Magistrate in the meantime has passed a final order in the month of April, 2022.

There has been complete change of circumstances. As such, the present revisional application, according to the statements made by the learned advocate appearing on behalf of the private opposite party, do not survive on merits.

With the aforesaid observations, the present revisional application being CRR 374 of 2021 is disposed of.

Pending applications, if any, are consequently disposed of.

All concerned parties are to act in terms of a copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this court.
