... ... For the Petitioners

Mr. Anwar Hossain,
Ms. Ratna Ghosh, Advocates
... ...For the State

Ms. Sananda Bhattacharyya, Advocate
... ...For the de facto complainant

Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners were falsely implicated.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the contents in the case diary. In response to a query of the Court she submits that there is no injury report in the case diary.

Learned advocate appearing for the de facto complainant submits that there is a civil suit pending between the private parties.

Considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioners therein and considering the fact that there is civil suit pending between the private parties, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear before the Court below and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date and on further condition that the petitioner nos. 1 and 2 shall meet the Investigating Officer once in a fortnight till completion of investigation and petitioner no. 3 shall cooperate with the investigation till its completion.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.

CRM (A) 1056 of 2022 is disposed of.
