Item no.43.
Court No.35.
I.T

C.R.R 378 of 2016

Subhendu Chowdhuri
-Vs.-
State of West Bengal & Anr.

None appear on behalf of the petitioner, thus the matter is pending in the list for several days and has been called on regularly. Hence, without wasting much time the same is taken up for disposal.

This case is filed by the petitioner against the proceedings in connection with Sarenga Police Station Case No. 69 of 2015 dated 23.12.2015 under Sections 498A/313/307 of IPC read with Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961. Connected G.R. Case No.817 of 2015.

Petitioner's case and grounds in a nut-shell are that he being the husband of the complainant has been entangled in the present criminal case without there being any cogent or justifiable reason to proceed against him.

According to him, the FIR does not indicate any prima facie material, so far as the above offences are concerned. He submits that the proceedings are only malicious and had prayed for quashing of the criminal proceedings as above.

Record reveals that the nature of the offence as alleged against the petitioner is of sufficient gravity. Moreover, the petitioner's contentions and grounds are not based upon cogent reasons or the legal principle.

Therefore, I do not find any merit in the present revision case and the revisional application being CRR 378 of 2016 is dismissed.
