

13.07.2022
Item No.31
Ct. No.33
S.A.

CRR 346 of 2015

In the matter of : Deben Mondal

- vs. -

State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Arijit Ganguly

Mr. Sanjib Kumar Dan

...for the State

None appears on behalf of the petitioner.

The present revision has been filed challenging the order No.20 dated 9th January, 2015 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Fast Track 2nd Court, paschim Medinipur in Sessions Trial Case No.33(1)/14.

The factual matrix of the case is that in the trial charge under Sections 376/417/506 of the Indian Penal Code was framed against the petitioner/accused. The trial was concluded and date was fixed for judgement on 23.12.2014. On such date after perusing the record, the learned trial court opined that language of charge in relation to offence under Section 417 of the Indian Penal Code was not correct and it proceeded to fix a date for alteration of charge on 09.01.2015. On the said date upon hearing the charge was altered to the extent as above.

Being aggrieved by and dissatisfied with the said order the petitioner preferred the present revision.

Mr. Arijit Ganguly, learned advocate for the State submits report. Let it be kept with the record. He submits that already the petitioner has been convicted in the trial and the case has been disposed of.

It appears from the report dated 05.07.2022 submitted by Officer-in-charge, Narayangarh Police Station that the petitioner has been convicted in the trial in connection with Narayangarh Police Station Case No.206/12 which is the subject matter of the present revision. As such the present revision has become infructuous and is accordingly dismissed.

All connected application, if any, also stands disposed of.

Interim order, if any stands vacated.

Urgent photostat certified copies of this order may be delivered to the parties, if applied for, upon compliance of all formalities.

(Bivas Pattanayak, J.)