....petitioners.

...for the petitioners.

...for the State.

Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the husband was enlarged on bail by the jurisdictional court.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary.

It appears that the victim suffered simple injuries. Moreover, the husband was already enlarged on bail by the jurisdictional court.

Considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioners therein, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a Bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner no. 1 will report before the Investigating Officer once in a fortnight till the conclusion of the investigation and petitioner no. 2 will co-operate with the investigation and on condition that the petitioners shall appear every day before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.

C.R.M. (A) 1336 of 2022 is, thus, disposed of.
