... .. Petitioners

Mr. Angsuman Chakraborty,
Mr. S.S. Saha, Advocates
... .. For the Petitioners

Mr. S. S. Imam, Jr. Govt. Advocate
Mr. R. Jana, Advocates
... ..For the State

Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the family of the de facto complainant was the tenant under the family of the petitioners. The tenant was sought to be evicted when, the present police complaint was falsely instituted.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary. In the complaint lodged with the police there is an acknowledgement of landlord-tenant relationship. It is also claimed that the petitioners assaulted the family of the de facto complainant with an iron rod on the head, waist and the leg. The injury reports of the victims does not corroborate such a claim.

Considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioners therein, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioners shall cooperate with the investigation till its completion and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear every day before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.
