Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that there were cases and counter cases. The police filed charge-sheet in both the cases. Therefore, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the injury report of the victim and the materials in the case diary.

Considering the fact that the police completed the investigations and submitted charge-sheet and considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioner therein, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a Bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner shall appear every day before the jurisdictional Court
