In re : An Application for Bail under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Entally Police Station Case No. 332 of 2020 dated 15.12.2020 under Sections 21(C) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act corresponding to NDPS Case No. 79/20.

Mr. Sanjoy Bardhan,
Ms. Baishakhi Chatterjee, Advocate

Considering the fact that commercial quantity of narcotic was seized from the possession of the petitioner, we are of the view that the petitioner is unable to overcome restrictions under Section 37 of the NDPS Act, 1985.

Consequently, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

Prayer for bail of the petitioner is rejected.

Considering the period of detention of the petitioner, it would be appropriate to request the trial Judge to dispose of the trial as expeditiously as possible and not to grant any unnecessary adjournments to any of the parties.

CRM (DB) 986 of 2022 is dismissed.
