Petitioner seeks bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for 275 days. The police filed charge sheet and, therefore, further detention of the petitioner is not required.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the statements of the victim recorded under Section 164 of the Criminal Procedure Code. He submits that today is the date fixed before the jurisdictional Court for the production of the accused.

Considering the period of detention of the petitioner and considering the statement of the victim recorded under Section 164 of the Criminal Procedure Code and considering the fact that police filed charge sheet, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ranaghat, Nadia subject to condition that the petitioner shall appear before the learned trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate witnesses and/or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.
