C.R.R. No.1294 of 2022

In Re: An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973;

Md. Anowar
Versus
The State of West Bengal

Mr. Sudip Ghosh Chowdhury,
Mr. Argha Das,
Mr. Abhishek Bose.
...for the petitioner.

Mr. Saswata Gopal Mukherjee, Ld.P.P.,
Mr. Arijit Ganguly,
Mr. Sanjib Kr. Dan.
...for the State.

Record of the revisional application reflects that, by an order date 17th February, 2022, the learned trial court was pleased to fix dates for examination of three witnesses between 14th June, 2022 to 16th June, 2022.

The petitioner is in custody for more than two years. As such interference is called for.

Mr. Arijit Ganguly, learned advocate, who ordinarily appears on behalf of the State, is directed to represent on behalf of the State in this matter. His appointment may be regularised by the concerned authorities.

Learned special court is directed that on each and every 60 days schedule consisting of three dates for examination of the witnesses may be fixed so that the trial of the case can be taken to its logical conclusion within a reasonable period of time. No unnecessary adjournment should be granted to either of the parties and dates/schedule should be fixed only after the public prosecutor assures the court regarding the availability of the witnesses.

With the aforesaid observations, CRR 1294 of 2022 is disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
