Ms. Debarati Das (Sen).

...for the Petitioners.

The petitioner prays for quashing of the complaint case initiated against him. The petitioner further prays for quashing of the order of the learned court below, by which cognizance was taken. Further direction upon the authorities, not to take any coercive steps against the petitioner has been sought for.

Having perused the contents of the petition, this Court is of the view that the prayers made in the writ petition cannot be entertained by this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Moreover, the petitioner also prays for grant of anticipatory bail, in an indirect way. The proper course would be to file appropriate applications under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, before the competent courts of law.

This order shall not have any impact on any other proceeding, which is either pending against the petitioner or may be initiated by the petitioner for similar reliefs.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of.

However, there will be no order as to costs.

All the parties are directed to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
