The railways are represented. They have clearly admitted that the land in question belongs to them.

The State and the Charu Market Police obviously cannot put the petitioner back in possession of a property that does not belong to the State and belongs to the railways.

In these circumstances, the contempt application shall stand disposed of without any further order.

Rule, if any, shall stand discharged.

There will be no order as to costs.

Interim orders, if any, shall stand vacated.

All parties are to act on a server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this court.
