Petitioners pray for bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are in custody for 123 days. The police filed charge-sheet and, therefore, further detention of the petitioners are not required. He submits that there is a counter case also. The petitioners also received injuries.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention to the injury reports of the victim and the statements recorded under Section 164 and 161 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Considering the period of detention of the petitioners and considering the fact that the police filed charge-sheet, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bankura, subject to condition that the petitioners shall appear before the learned trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate witnesses and/or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event, the petitioners fail to appear before the trial court without any justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail of the petitioners in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The prayer for bail of the petitioners is allowed.
