Petitioners pray for anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners that, the police filed charge-sheet. The husband was granted bail by the Jurisdictional Court.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case dairy.

Considering the fact that the police filed charge-sheet and considering the fact that the husband was enlarged on bail by the Jurisdictional Court and considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioners therein as transpiring therefrom, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioners shall appear every day before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
