Shri Sankar Prasad Roy
Vs.
The State of West Bengal

Mr. Binoy Panda
Mr. Pravas Bhattacharyya ... for the State

The matter is listed today for hearing and compliance.

None appear for the petitioner.

Mr. Binoy Panda and Mr. Pravas Bhattacharyya have appeared before the court. Attendance of the State advocates may be regularised.

On perusal of the previous order dated 15.02.2022, I find that a direction was given to the petitioner to produce all orders subsequent to the admission of the revisional application on 14.07.2011. The said order has not been complied. The revisional application was filed praying for quashing of proceeding in connection with Moyna Police Station case no.5 of 1994 corresponding to GR case No.54 of 1994 pending before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Purba Medinipore and charge sheet no.7 dated 11.04.1994 submitted under Sections 147/148/149/427/506 of the Indian Penal Code. Notice has not been served upon the defacto complainant and no interim order has been passed in this case.

Under such circumstances, the revisional application is dismissed for default of the petitioner and accordingly, disposed of. Connected application, if any, are also disposed of.

Let a copy of this order be sent to the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Purba Medinipore for information.

(Ananda Kumar Mukherjee, J.)

failed to appreciate the evidence on record and arrived at a wrong decision.

No ground has been taken that the petitioner is a juvenile yet the learned advocate seeks relief on the ground of juvenility of the petitioner.
