Petitioner prays for anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that, there was a relationship between the petitioner and the victim. The victim committed suicide.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the statement of the mother of the victim recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Cr.P.C.).

Considering the post mortem report of the victim, who is a male and considering the materials in the case diary and the involvement of the petitioner therein, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall cooperate with the Investigating Officer till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear every day before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
