Petitioner seeks bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for 257 days. The police filed charge-sheet and, therefore, further detention of the petitioner is not required. He submits that the victim was in hospital for about 14 days.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention to the materials in the case diary including the statement recorded under Section 161 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the two sons of the victim as well as one neighbour of the victim. The statement recorded under Section 161 of the Code of Criminal Procedure by the two sons of the victim as well as the neighbour the victim confided that the petitioner was the person who assaulted the victim.

Considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioner as transpiring from the materials in the case dairy, we are unable to grant bail to the petitioner.
