(disposed of)

C.O.1271 of 2022

Subhash Ghosh
Vs.
Monika Dutta & ors.

Mr. Tarak Nath Halder
...for the petitioner

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of Eviction Suit being Ejectment Suit No.09 of 2017, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

Mr. Tarak Nath Halder, learned advocate for the petitioner submits that as many as ten (10) days got adjourned to complete the cross-examination of P.W.1. P.W.2 is about to be completed shortly.

The only contention thus expressed by the learned advocate for the petitioner is against the delay caused in disposal of the suit.

No other point is raised, requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of order proposed to be made, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite parties stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), at Sealdah, South 24 Parganas, in Ejectment Suit No. 09 of 2017, is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of the pending suit, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting any unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

While endeavouring such exercise, the court below may take into account the year of institution of the Eviction Suit and the number of adjournments already granted in finishing the cross-examination of the P.W.1 and then proceed with the disposal of the suit in the manner, as situation of the case would demand, so as to dispense with the justice in a best possible and expeditious manner.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the opposite parties and their advocate in the court below.

With this observation/direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent certified photostat copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties as expeditiously as possible on compliance of all necessary formalities.
