It is submitted by the learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner that co-accused has been granted bail in CRM (DB) 1356 of 2022 passed on 06.06.2022.

Learned Counsel appearing for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Keeping in mind the materials on record and the extent of complicity of the petitioner in the alleged crime and as co-accused has been granted bail, we are inclined to extend the same privilege to the petitioner also.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that he shall appear before the court below and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

Learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that he has been falsely implicated in the instant case and the allegations are patently absurd and inherently improbable.

Learned Counsel appearing for the State opposes the prayer for bail.

We have considered the materials in the case diary and bearing in nature of allegations in the light of the aforesaid submission made by the learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner, we are of the opinion although custodial interrogation of the petitioner may not be necessary in the facts of the case but movement of the petitioner requires to be restricted to instill confidence in the mind of the victim.
