.....for the petitioners

Mr. Rudradipta Nandy, learned APP
Ms. Eshita Dutta
....for the State

Learned Counsel appearing for the petitioners submits there is a civil dispute between the parties and de facto complainant filed civil suit over the selfsame land but failed to obtain an order of injunction. Subsequently, they have resorted to criminal law and instituted a number of cases.

Learned Counsel appearing for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail and produces the case diary.

We have considered the materials on record. Allegations of fraud requires to be assessed in the backdrop of the pending civil dispute between the parties.

In view of the aforesaid facts, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that they shall appear before the court below and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
