Item no.54
Ct no.34

IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
Criminal Revisional Jurisdiction

CRR 1247 of 2010

Smt. Swati Ranjit
-versus-
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. S. G. Mukherji, Id. PP,
Mr. Arijit Ganguly
...for the State.

None appears on behalf of the petitioner or for the private parties.

The subject matter of this revisional application relates to an order dated 12th January, 2010 passed by the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Contai Purba Medinipore in connection with G. R. Case No. 995/2008 (Contai P. S. Case No. 301 of 2008 dated 02.12.2008 under Sections 379/323/506 of the Indian Penal Code.

Mr. Arijit Ganguly, appears on behalf of the State and draws the attention of this court to the impugned order and submits that there is no illegality in the order passed by the learned Magistrate.

The impugned order reflects that the learned Magistrate was pleased to accept the final report and discharged the accused persons from the bail bond and this was subsequent to an application for further investigation being filed at the instance of the present petitioner. In view of the passage of time, which has elapsed in the meantime, I direct that no useful purpose would be sub-served by directing the Investigating Agency to further investigate the matter.

However, the petitioner/de facto complainant would be at liberty to exercise his grievance by filing a complaint under Section 200 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

With the aforesaid observations, the present revisional application being CRR 1247 of 2010 is disposed of.

Pending applications, if any, are consequently disposed of.

All concerned parties are to act in terms of a copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this court.
