Item no.55

Ct no.34

IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
Criminal Revisional Jurisdiction

CRR 1673 of 2007

Mrs. Mira Das
-versus-
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Re : An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Mr. Soubhik Mitter
...for the petitioner.

Mr. Mitter, learned advocate appears on behalf of the petitioner and contends that the process was issued against the present petitioner without compliance of Section 202 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in respect of some of the accused persons who have been implicated in this case. Learned Magistrate erroneously issued process without adhering the relevant provisions of law.

Record of this revisional application reflect that the interim order which was granted initially was extended till September, 2007 and thereafter the interim order was never extended. No information could be furnished by the learned advocate for the petitioner regarding the present stage of the proceedings.

Having regard to the same, I am of the opinion that if the complaint case till date is pending, the petitioner would be at liberty to agitate all points canvassed in the revisional application at the relevant stage of the proceeding.

Accordingly, the revisional application being CRR 1673 of 2007 is dismissed.

Pending applications, if any, are consequently disposed of.

Interim order, if any, is hereby vacated.

All concerned parties are to act in terms of a copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this court.
