Re: CAN 1 of 2021

This is an application for review of a judgment and order dated 10th June, 2021 passed by a Division Bench of this court, where one of us (Aniruddha Roy, J.) was a member. Review of a judgment and order can be made on very limited grounds as provided in order 47 rule 1 of the Civil Procedure Code. It is available if there is an error apparent on the face of the record or on the basis of discovery of evidence which in spite of due diligence could not be found or made available when the order was passed.

In this application for review there is absence of those grounds.

The grounds sought to be made out in this application relate to the alleged errors in the findings reached by the learned bench. This ground if found tenable may be entertained in another forum but certainly not in the exercise of its review jurisdiction.

For all of those reasons, the application for review is not entertained and is dismissed.

The application CAN 1 of 2021 is accordingly, disposed of.
