2. The petitioner has filed the instant revision praying for expeditious disposal of the NDPS instituted against him.
3. On perusal of the application under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C and considering the prayer made by the petitioner, this Court is of the view that the revisional application can be disposed of here and now in presence of the learned Advocate for the state.

4. Mrs. Pushpita Saha, learned P.P-in-Charge is requested to represent the State of West Bengal in the instant case. Copy of the revisional application is served upon the learned P.P-in-Charge.

5. The legal remembrancer, Government of West Bengal is requested to regularize the appointment of Mrs. Pushpita Saha.

6. It is submitted by the learned Advocate for the petitioner that the petitioner was arrested on 10th June, 2020 since then he is in custody for more than two years. In case No.N129 of 2020 charge was framed against the petitioner on 10th September, 2021. Thereafter, the trial court fixed 18th January, 2021 for examination of the witnesses. No witness was however produced by the prosecution. Subsequently, on 18th January, 2022 prosecution failed to produce any witness. Next dates of evidence are fixed on 22nd and 23rd September, 2022.

7. It is further submitted by the learned Advocate for the petitioner that the prosecution is not at all serious for speedy disposal of the case. Therefore, necessary direction may be issued upon the court below for expeditious disposal.

8. It is needless to say that in respect of “Case Flow Management”, the High Court has issued a notification bearing No.4860 dated 6th December, 2006 in the said notification NDPS case is listed as Track 1 case and trial court is directed to dispose of NDPS case within nine months from the date of submission of charge-sheet. The learned trial judge failed to take recourse of speedy disposal of the case and thereby violated the High Court notification No.4860 dated 6th December, 2006.

9. In view of such circumstances, the trial court is directed to positively conclude examination of witnesses by December, 2022 and dispose of the case by January, 2023.

10. The instant criminal revision is thus disposed of with the above direction.

11. The learned Advocate for the petitioner is at liberty to communicate this order to the trial court and the trial court is directed to act upon the server copy of the order.
