W.P.A No. 11310 of 2022

Jahar Lal Das

Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Ms. Sabita Khutia ... for the petitioner.

Mr. Ananda Dulal Sarkar ... for the State.

Affidavit of service filed in Court today be kept with the record.

The petitioner was a clerk of a School, District – Nadia, who retired from service on 31.05.2018. The first pension payment order was issued on 02.01.2019. Under the ROPA Rules, 2019 there was revision of the pensionary and gratuity amount payable to the petitioner. The revised pension payment order was issued on 23.1.2020 and the revised gratuity amount was disbursed on 17.12.2020 in terms of ROPA, 2019. The petitioner claims interest on delayed payment of the principal gratuity and arrear pension amount and also revised arrear pension amount and revised gratuity amount.

There is a considerable delay in filing of the writ petition, which the petitioner seeks to justify by stating that there is no statutory period of limitation and neither parties have suffered due to this delay. It is the submission of the petitioner that accordingly the petition should be allowed.

The petitioner relies upon an order in W.P. 17557 (W) of 2017 (Narayan Chandra Saha vs. State of West Bengal & Ors.) wherein a co-ordinate Bench had relied upon the Supreme Court judgment in the case of Union of India vs. Tarsem Singh, reported in (2008) 8 SCC 648 on the issue of limitation relating to payment or refixation of pay or pension wherein the Apex Court had held that relief may be granted in spite of delay as it does not affect the rights of the third party.

In view of the above and after hearing the learned Counsel for the parties, I direct the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the petitioner @ 8% per annum on the principal gratuity and arrear pension amount calculated on and from 01.06.2018 till the date of payment and to pay interest @ 8% per annum on the revised gratuity and revised arrear pension amount calculated on and from 14.02.2020 till the date of actual payment. Such payment is to be made within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order.

With these observations, the writ petition is disposed of.

Since, no affidavit-in-opposition has been called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed to have not been admitted by the respondents.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Urgent certified photo copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties expeditiously on compliance of usual legal formalities.
