C.O. 1670 of 2022

Sri Prasanta Kumar Saha
Vs
Smt. Gouri Rani Halder & Ors.

Mr. Sabyasachi Mukherjee,
Mr. Bikek Dey,
Ms. Debarati Choudhury ... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of a Suit, being Title Suit No. 63 of 2008, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division) 1st Court, Barasat is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

The only contention expressed by the learned advocate for the petitioner/plaintiff is against the delay caused in the disposal of suit, what is submitted to have been instituted in the year 2008.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in this case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary upon the opposite parties.

Service of notice of this application upon opposite parties stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Senior Division) 1st Court, Barasat, in Title Suit No. 63 of 2008 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of suit, after causing disposal of interlocutory application (amendment) under Order 6 Rule 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting unnecessary adjournments, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

While endeavouring such exercise, the year of institution may be taken into account, and in context thereof, the court below may proceed with the disposal of the suit aiming at ensuring expeditious disposal most reasonably.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite parties and the opposite parties.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
