CRR 1645 of 2017

Lin Ghosh
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Mahfuz Murshed
... for the petitioner.
Ms. Faria Hossain,
Ms. Debjani Sahu
.... For the State.

Petitioner is represented through learned advocate
Mr. Mahfuz Murshed.

State is represented.

Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that he has verbally instructed not to proceed with this instant criminal revisional application further. He also seeks for necessary liberty to file the criminal revisional application afresh.

Heard the learned advocate perused the instant criminal application, which is filed in the year 2017.
Considering the submission of the learned advocate, the instant criminal application is hereby dismissed as not pressed.

The petitioner is at liberty to file necessary application subject to the period of limitation.

Accordingly, the criminal revisional application being CRR 1645 of 2017 is disposed as not pressed.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
