Ms. Manasi Roy, Advocate

... ...For the State

Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the husband was taken into custody and is still in custody.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention to the postmortem report of the victim and to the statement of the neighbour recorded under Section 161 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Considering the omnibus nature of allegations as against the petitioners and considering the fact that the husband is still in custody, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner nos. 1 and 3 shall report before the Investigating Officer once in a fortnight till the conclusion of the investigation and petitioner no. 2 will cooperate with the investigation and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear every day before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.
CRM (A) 3085 of 2022 is disposed of.
