Petitioner prays for anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that, the incident arose out of family disputes.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary including the injury report of the victims. He submits that, the petitioner is one of the assailant.

The Court is informed that the police filed charge-sheet.

Considering the materials in the case diary, the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioner therein and considering the fact that the police filed charge-sheet, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
