....for the State

Petitioner prays for anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that, the husband is in custody. The parents-in-law of the deceased were granted anticipatory bail by this Hon'ble Court. The petitioner resides at a different premises. The petitioner is the maternal uncle-in-law of the victim.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the contents in the case diary.

Considering the relationship of the petitioner with the victim and considering the fact that the parents-in-law of the victim were granted anticipatory bail, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall meet the Investigating Officer as and when called for till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
