C.O. 1889 of 2022

Sudarsan Halder
Vs
Samir Karmakar

Mr. Subhasish Bhattacharya.
... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of Suit being Title Suit No. 542 of 2021, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 3rd Court, Baruipur is the ultimate relief sought for in this revisional application.

Admittedly petitioner is the defendant, who has been suffering ad interim order injunction.

The only contention expressed by the learned advocate for the petitioner is against the delay caused in the disposal of interlocutory application for the adjournments being granted on the prayer of the opposite party/plaintiff.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in this case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary upon the opposite party.

Service of notice of this application upon opposite party stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 3rd Court, Baruipur, in Title Suit No. 542 of 2021 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of interlocutory application, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting unnecessary adjournments, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite party and the opposite party.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
