Mr. Nilanjan Bhattacharya,
Mr. Abhilash Chatterjee,
... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of Title Suit No. 95 of 2012 pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 5th Court, Howrah, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

The only contention expressed by the learned advocate for the petitioner is against the delay caused in the disposal of suit.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in this case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary upon the opposite parties.

Service of notice of this application upon opposite parties stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, the Civil Judge (Junior Division), 5th Court, Howrah, in Title Suit No. 95 of 2012 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of the suit providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting unnecessary adjournments, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

While endeavouring such exercise, the year of institution of the suit may be taken into account and in context therewith the Court below, may proceed with the disposal of the suit, in the manner as situation of the case would demand so as to dispense with the justice, in a best possible and quickly manner.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite parties and the opposite parties.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
