C.O. 2014 of 2022

Sri Anomitra Biswas
Vs
Sri Anjan Mukherjee & Ors

Mr. Sukalyan Sarkar,
Mr. Argosy Roy Chowdhury,
Mr. Anadi Lal Mukherjee, ... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of a suit, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

Admittedly, the petitioner is the plaintiff.

The only contention raised by the petitioner is against the delay caused in the disposal of the suit.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in the case, referred above, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite parties is thus dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 3rd Court, Alipore in Title Suit No. 228 of 2005 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of the suit, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

While endeavouring such exercise, the year of institution of the suit may be taken into account and in context there with, the Court below may proceed to dispose of the suit expeditiously, preferably within a period of six months from the date of communication of this order, excluding the period of vacation of the Court below, that would intervene in the mean time.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite parties and the opposite parties.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
