Mr. Rajdeep Bhattacharya
...for the petitioners

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of Title Suit No.556 of 2011, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court, Barasat, North 24 Parganas, is the ultimate prayer proposed in this case.

Admittedly, petitioner is the defendant. Petitioner claims himself to be a senior citizen.

The only contention expressed by the petitioner is against the delay caused in the disposal of the suit.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of order proposed to be made in this case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite party stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court, Barasat, North 24 Parganas, in Title Suit No.556 of 2011, is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of the suit after causing disposal of interlocutory applications, in particular, injunction application one after another, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting any unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

While endeavouring such exercise, the year of institution of the suit may be taken into account, and the court below may proceed to dispose of the injunction application first so as to dispense with the justice in a faster mode.

With this observation/direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Petitioners are directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the opposite party and his learned advocate in the court below.

Urgent certified photostat copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties as expeditiously as possible on compliance of all necessary formalities.
