Item No.2
Ct. No.7
CHC
(disposed of)

C.O.2098 of 2022

Attabuddin Sekh
Vs.
Aris Capital Private Limited

Mr. Asit Kumar Bhattacharya
...for the petitioner

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of an application under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure filed on 26th March, 2021, praying for return of the seized vehicle, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

It is submitted by the learned advocate for the petitioner that vehicle has been seized illegally by the financier, despite an order of injunction granted in this case.

The only contention thus expressed by the petitioner is against the delay caused in the disposal of interlocutory application, referred hereinabove.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of order proposed to be made in this case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite party stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned 7th Bench, City Civil Court, at Calcutta, is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of interlocutory application under Section 151 C.P.C. referred hereinabove, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting any unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable, preferably within a period of three (03) weeks after reopening of Puja Vacation of the court below.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the opposite party and his learned advocate in the court below.

With this observation/direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent certified photostat copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties as expeditiously as possible on compliance of all necessary formalities.
