Mr. Debdatta Banerjee, ... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of an interlocutory application under Order 26 Rule 9 of the CPC is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in the case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite party is thus dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 2nd Court, Sealdah in Title Suit No. 609 of 2018 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of the suit, after causing disposal of the interlocutory application referred hereinabove, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting unnecessary adjournment, preferably within six weeks after reopening of Puja vacation of the Court below.

This order is passed without going into the merits of the local inspection and without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the parties.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite party and the opposite party.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
