C.R.R 2283 of 2003

In Re: An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure;

Raj Gopal Pasari
Versus
State and another

Ms. Ananya Das.
...for the petitioner.

Ms. Baisali Basu.
...for the State.

Ms. Das, learned advocate, appears for the petitioner and prays for an accommodation.

The subject matter of the revisional application relates to an order dated 16th September, 2003 passed by the learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Alipore, 24 Parganas (South) in Case
No.C/5161/03.

I have perused the order dated 16th September, 2003 and I find that subsequent to the said order, case was registered by
dated 19.09.2003 (C.G.R. No.2718 of 2003).

As none appears on behalf of the State, Ms. Baisali Basu, learned advocate, who ordinarily appears on behalf of the State, is directed to represent the State. Her appearance may be regularised by the concerned authorities.

Having regard to the fact that the revisional application has not been admitted till date and Karaya Police Station registered the case and proceeded with the investigation, the very substance of challenge of the order dated 16th September, 2003 becomes infructuous. As such, I am of the opinion that no interference is called for in respect of the prayers advanced in this revisional application.

Accordingly, CRR 2283 of 2003 is dismissed.

Pending application, if any, is consequently disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
