.....For the petitioner

Ms. Sayanti Santra

.....For the State

Apprehending arrest in connection with Sinthi Police Station Case No. 18 of 2021 dated 22.02.2021 under Sections 498A/406/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code and under Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, the present application has been preferred.

Mr. Nandy, learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that unfounded allegations have been levelled against the petitioner, who married the victim lady way back in the year 2012. The petitioner's wife left her matrimonial home in the month of January, 2018 and lodged the complaint about four years thereafter. In the midst thereof, there was a discussion amongst the parties for mutual divorce, however, the same has not materialized till date. In the said conspectus, the petitioner may be granted anticipatory bail on any condition.

Ms. Santra, learned advocate appearing for the State opposes the petitioner's prayer and draws our attention to the statement of the victim lady, as recorded under Section 164 of the Code and other documents in the case diary.

Having heard the learned advocates appearing for the respective parties and considering the materials in the case diary, the nature of accusations and the possible extent of complicity of the petitioner in the alleged offence, we are of the opinion that custodial interrogation is not necessary.

Accordingly, we allow this application and direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner, namely, Sanjeeban Chakraborty shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two registered sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

It is further directed that the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence and/or intimidate the witnesses. He shall also attend learned Court below on all the dates, as specified for hearing.

In the event the petitioner fails to comply with the aforesaid directions, without any justifiable cause, the learned Court below shall be at liberty to cancel his bail, in accordance with law, without further reference to this Court.

The application for anticipatory bail, being CRM 6904 of 2021, is, thus, disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copies of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
