Report is placed on record. From the report it appears that the Voter's Identity Card relied upon by the petitioner is valid.

Petitioner prays for bail. He submits co-accused has been granted bail by the Apex Court in Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) 4123 of 2022. He is in custody for over two years.

Learned lawyer for the State produces the case diary.

We have considered the materials on record. Petitioner stands on the same footing with co-accused Ahadulla Gazi who has been released on bail by the Apex Court. Hence, we are inclined to release the petitioner on bail on principal of parity.

Accordingly, the petitioner be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Judge, Special Court under NDPS Act, Barasat, North 24 Parganas on condition that the petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever and petitioner while on bail shall not leave the jurisdiction of the Deganga police station except for the purpose of attending court proceedings and shall report to the Officer-in-Charge of the said police station once in a week until further orders.

In the event petitioner fails to appear before the trial court without justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail automatically without reference to this court.

The application being CRM(NDPS) No. 861 of 2022 is disposed of.
