In The High Court At Calcutta
Constitutional Writ Jurisdiction
Appellate Side

W.P.A. 18241 of 2021

Sunirmal Bhattacharya
-versus
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Banshi Badan Maity.
...For the Petitioner.

Affidavit-of-service filed in Court today is taken on record.

None appears on behalf of the State respondents in spite of service.

The wife of the petitioner was an approved Assistant Teacher of a primary school. She died-in-harness on 24th June, 1998. On 26th June, 2006, the Pension Payment Order was issued in favour of the petitioner being her spouse and the petitioner received the arrear pension amount on 4th October, 2007.

The petitioner prays for interest on account of the delayed payment of the terminal benefits.

In the present case it is noticed that the petitioner has approached this Court long after the Pension Payment Order was issued and payment made in accordance with the same.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Union of India –vs- Tarsem Singh reported in (2008) 8 SCC 648 clearly laid down that in so far as consequential relief of recovery of arrear for a past period is concerned the relief shall be restricted only to a period of three years prior to the filing of the writ petition or from the date of demand made by the petitioner.

In the instant case the petitioner did not raise any demand before the respondents praying for release of interest on account of delay in making payment. The petitioner directly approached this Court praying for interest, that too, long after the PPO was issued.

There is no explanation given with regard to the inordinate delay in filing the writ petition.

In view of the above, the Court is not inclined to exercise jurisdiction in the matter and grant any relief in favour of the petitioner.

The writ petition is dismissed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order be supplied to the parties, if applied for, as early as possible.
