

Court No. 17

WPA 17639 of 2022

14.09.2022

(AD 113)

(S. Banerjee)

Shibani Chakraborty (Chatterjee)

Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Saibal Acharya
Mr. Dwarikanath Mukherjee
Mr. Sujit Bhunia
Mr. Pradip Kumar Ghosh

... for the petitioner

Mr. Pinaki Dhole
Ms. Ananya Neogi

... for the State

Mr. Biswabrata Basu Mallick

... for the DPSC, Hooghly

Let the affidavit of service filed in court today be kept with the record.

The petitioner's full pension has not been granted because of some technical questions raised by departments.

Mr. Dhole, learned advocate for the State in his fair way of assisting this court, has stated by showing page 23 (Annexure P-2) of the writ application that the delay in depositing the amount of money is to be condoned by the School Education Department.

From the pleadings and submissions of the parties I have found that there is no responsibility of the petitioner for such delay. So the petitioner cannot be blamed.

Therefore, I direct the School Education Department to condone the delay in depositing the amount of money within a period of four weeks from the date of communication of this order so that the petitioner can get the full pension after his retirement along with the arrears of the residue part of the pension. The Gratuity is also to be paid to the petitioner by the authorities within a period of three months from the date of communication of this order.

I expect that this order will be taken as a mandatory order by the concerned departments.

With the observations and directions above, this writ application is disposed of.
