C.O. 2294 of 2022

Tapash Talukdar

Vs

Sri Chapal Chowdhury & Anr.

Mr. Supriya Ranjan Saha,
Mr. Suman Kr. Mukherjee,
Ms. Priyanka Das.

... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of a Money Suit No. 45 of 2020, instituted in the year 2020, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

There are some interlocutory applications pending admittedly.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in the case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite parties is thus dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), Sealdah in Money Suit No. 45 of 2020 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of referred Money Suit, after causing disposal of the interlocutory application, one after another, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, subject to the suitability and convenience of the court below, but without granting unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

While endeavouring such exercise, the pending interlocutory application may be disposed of as expeditiously as possible, preferably before the end of April, 2023. The logical conclusion of the suit may thereafter reach after adhering to the formalities of law.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite parties and the opposite parties.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
