...for the petitioner

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of Ejectment Suit No.152 of 2010, pending before the learned Judge, 6th Bench, Presidency Small Causes Court, Calcutta, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

The only contention expressed by the petitioner/plaintiff is against the delay caused in the disposal of the suit, which was originally instituted in the year 2010.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of order proposed to be made in this case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite party stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Judge, 6th Bench, Presidency Small Causes Court, at Calcutta, in Ejectment Suit No.152 of 2010 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of Ejectment Suit referred hereinabove, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, preferably before the end of May, 2023, but without granting any unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable, subject to the suitability and convenience of the court below.

With this observation/direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the opposite party and his learned advocate in the court below.

Urgent certified photostat copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties as expeditiously as possible on compliance of all necessary formalities.
