Ms. Minoti Gomes
Mr. Amanul Islam

...for the petitioner.

Mr. Swapan Banerjee

...for the State.

Petitioner prays for anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that there are two previous police complaints as against the family members of the de facto complainant. The petitioner was falsely implicated.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary. The victim lady denied medical examination.

There are two previous police complaints. The possibility of the petitioner being falsely implicated cannot be overlooked.

In such circumstances, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a Bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner will report before the Investigating Officer as and when called for till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.
