In Re:- An application for anticipatory bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Nalhati Police Station Case No. 248 of 2022 dated 17.06.2022 under Sections 306/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

And

In Re : Nasrin Sultana

..... petitioner

Mr. Kunal Ganguly

....for the petitioner

Mr. Sujan Chatterjee

....for the State

The post mortem report of the victim suggests that the victim committed suicide.

There are two notes to which, the learned advocate appearing for the State relies upon.

Those two notes claimed that, the petitioner acted in breach of trust in relation to the victim.

Considering the materials in the case diary, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall cooperate with the Investigating Officer till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
