Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that all other co-accuseds were enlarged on bail. Even the husband of the de facto complainant was enlarged on bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary.

The petitioner before us is the father-in-law of the de facto complainant. The husband of the de facto complainant was enlarged on bail by the jurisdictional Court. The police filed charge sheet.

In such circumstances, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.
