In The High Court At Calcutta
Constitutional Writ Jurisdiction
Appellate Side

W.P.A. 20010 of 2021

Debaprasad Halder
-versus
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Tamal Taru Panda.
...For the Petitioner.

Ms. Susmita Biswas Chowdhury.
...For the State.

Affidavit-of-service filed in Court today is taken on record.

The petitioner was a Primary School Assistant Teacher who retired from service on 30.06.1998. The first pension payment order was issued on 25.02.2002 and the arrear pension was disbursed on 28.04.2002. Under the ROPA Rules, 1998 there was revision of the pension and gratuity amount payable to the petitioner. The revised pension payment order was issued on 26.03.2003 and the arrear revised pension was disbursed on 08.04.2003 in terms of ROPA 1998.

The petitioner prays for interest on account of the delayed payment of the terminal benefits.

In the present case it is noticed that the petitioner has approached this Court long after the Pension Payment Order was issued and payment made in accordance with the same.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Union of India –vs- Tarsem Singh reported in (2008) 8 SCC 648 clearly laid down that in so far as consequential relief of recovery of arrear for a past period is concerned the relief shall be restricted only to a period of three years prior to the filing of the writ petition or from the date of demand made by the petitioner.

In the instant case the petitioner did not raise any demand before the respondents praying for release of interest on account of delay in making payment. The petitioner directly approached this Court praying for interest, that too, long after the PPO was issued.

The fact that the teacher never raised any issue or made any prayer for grant of interest on account of delayed payment of his termination benefits implies that the teacher waived his right to receive interest.

In view of the above, the Court is not inclined to exercise jurisdiction in the matter and grant any relief in favour of the petitioner.

The writ petition is dismissed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order be supplied to the parties, if applied for, as early as possible.
