Report is placed on record. From the report it appears examination-in-chief of the Investigating Officer is over. Cross-examination of the police officer was adjourned on the prayer of a co-accused.

In view of the aforesaid circumstances and as the trial is at its fag-end, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage.

The application for bail is thus rejected.

Trial court is directed to expedite the trial and conclude the same at an early date preferably within three months from the next date fixed for recording evidence without granting unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties.
