Learned counsels appearing on behalf of the accused-petitioners and the complainant-opposite party submit as follows. During pendency of the proceeding, a compromise and settlement was arrived at between the private parties of all disputes that had led to the initiation of the impugned proceeding. The complainant wants and undertakes to withdraw the case against the accused-petitioner before the learned trial Court. The offences involved are all compoundable. As such, the petitioners would not like to press this application.

On the prayer of the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners, the revisional application and the connected application are disposed of as not pressed.

However, liberty is granted to the parties to approach the learned trial Court for the complainant-opposite party to pray for withdrawal of the complaint filed against the accused.

Urgent photostat certified copies of this order may be delivered to the learned Advocates for the parties, if applied for, upon compliance of all formalities.
