It is submitted by learned counsel for the alleged contemnors that the registered deed-in-question has been handed over to the petitioners by the registering authority in the meantime, upon the necessary corrections having been effected in its number.

Hence, since nothing remains in the contempt application. CPAN 892 of 2022 is disposed of on the above observations, without any order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copies of this order, if applied for, be made available to the parties upon compliance with the requisite formalities.
